What do Your Actions Show about You?

A person always shows what rules his heart by his actions. Jesus said, "So then, you will know them by their fruits." (Matthew 7:20) This rule is so true that we will be judged by what we say and do (Matt. 12:37; 2 Cor. 5:10)

James did not teach that people are saved by meritorious works. He charged them: "If you have faith, show it." (James 2:20,26) Do you really believe the Bible is God's inspired Word and the only reliable guide? ( 2 Tim. 3:16-17). If so, how do you show it? Is your life, all of it centered in God's Word?

Do you study the Word diligently? Do you obey God's will? The only acceptable faith is based on God's Word (Romans 10:17) and it always expresses itself in action.

Some will challenge almost everything revealed in God's Word. They won't have the courage to publicly flaunt it or ridicule it. Their attack is subtly. They will claim to be loyal; then pervert it, or ignore it or will try to explain it away instead of surrendering in obedience.

They will often claim they love God, but their love is carnal in variety (1 John 2:15-16). "They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed. (Titus 1:16).

Those who are truly faithful, strive to live by God's Word, because they devoutly believe it is perfect, practical, leading to life eternal. They are not looking for loopholes in God's will. Rather they look for ways to please Him as faithful servants.

In which group does your actions place you?
