I'M GOING TO BE SOMEBODY SOMEDAY

Lloyd Gale

Words of this nature often express the desire of someone to make their mark in life — to accomplish something worthwhile. There is nothing wrong with this thought and intent as long as we understand the meaning of an accomplishment.

Cain, king Saul and Judas made their mark as well as many others both past and present have left their mark. But there was also Abraham, Moses, Joseph, David, Jesus and the apostles who amounted to something more than noteworthy.

It is a shame to hear today what so many young people have in mind when they say they want to be somebody. They believe that being a rock star, a movie star, a center fold in Playboy, a star athlete and such like would make them somebody.

Let me tell you about some people I know and have known throughout the years who have truly become “somebody”.

“Somebody” was willing to leave home, family, friends and a comfortable life to go to far away places to carry the Gospel to those eager to learn about God.

“Somebody” has lived a life in preparation to becoming an elder, deacon, teacher, or preacher of the Gospel.

“Somebody” is concerned about friends, family and others who are lost and invites and brings someone to church.

“Somebody” sowed the garments for those who come to be baptized into Christ and takes the wet garments home and washes, dries and folds them for the next person to use.

“Somebody” assists those who are being prepared to be baptized into Christ.

“Somebody” prepares the Lord’s supper each week and makes sure the supplies are always ready.

“Somebody” prepares the bulletin each week with church news and a thoughtful lesson.

“Somebody” is responsible for providing the supplies for the care and maintenance of the church.

“Somebody” keeps the church building clean and fresh for worship.

“Somebody” takes care of the property outside of the church building.

“Somebody” leads the song service for worship.

“Somebody” takes care of the contribution, deposits it in the bank, keeps records and pays the bills.

“Somebody” serves the Lord’s supper, takes up the collection and obtains the names of the visitors.

“Somebody” writes a letter, makes a phone call to those who have visited and invites them back.

“Somebody” prepares lessons for our Bible classes.

“Somebody” brings flowers each week to brighten the church building.

“Somebody” prays for the delinquent, the sick and the lost each day.

“Somebody” brings others to church who often obey the Gospel.

“Somebody” gives cheerfully and liberally to support the work of the church.

“Somebody” prepares tapes and discs of the sermons as a means of spreading the Gospel to others.

“Somebody” prepares and delivers the sermons, teaches classes, performs the marriages, consults with the troubled, writes articles for brotherhood publications, appears on lecture-ships, holds Gospel meetings and preaches funerals.

So you see, every person has the opportunity to be “somebody” if they so desire. When we stand before our Lord in judgment, may we all do so as “somebody” who served the Lord.

Prayer List

Staggs Family—Keep Janice and Jim in your prayers

Sue Gardner—For her daughter and grandchildren, with the difficulties they face. Also for her health

Roberts Family— Please pray for them to have a safe trip home from Texas.

Roberts Family — Jon’s Uncle passed away last week from lung cancer. This was his mom, Glenda’s brother. Please keep all of them in prayer at this time.

Stanley Family— Health, strength and guidance in issues they face and for the Bruger family

One another—Let us keep each other in prayer continually that we might be the salt and the light that God has called us to be in our Lord Jesus Christ
